Our Vice Chancellor is
The President of the National Association of Geographers

It is a matter of pride for the University that our Vice Chancellor has unanimously been elected as the President of the Association Geographers, India (NAGI). It is a national body of geographers which is established to promote the study and research in geography and to develop interaction and discussion with similar bodies of other countries to advance the research and understanding on contemporary social, economic, environmental and other relevant issues in geographical perspectives. Prof. Singh was elected in the 37th Indian Geography Congress at University of Jammu on Dec. 03, 2015. He will take over the charge as the President in the 38th Indian Geography Congress, to be held at University of Mysore, Mysore in December, 2016.
